Consent to Screen

The TSA requires that Ram International refuse to offer air transportation (passenger or freighter) of any cargo where the shipper does not consent to screening of the cargo as the TSA considers all cargo tendered for air transportation is subject to screening by the forwarder, air carrier or the TSA.

Should you tender cargo to Ram International, it is possible that Ram International will conduct screening of your cargo from the date of this notice forward to avoid further inspection or delay due to screening later in the supply chain. In consideration for providing this service, you agree that Ram International shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay due to opening any cargo, resulting physical inspection or repacking or any impact on transit times. This consent shall remain in effect for all cargo tendered by you to Ram International from the date below until revoked by you in writing.

Please acknowledge you consent to screening and acknowledgement and acceptance of the waivers set above.
